Dear Jim:

I have made a final decision to remain with the Highland church. My commitment is till June 1, 1971. Even though there is no thought for a specific move at that date. I did feel it wise to make a twelve month commitment and give myself unreservedly to the work here. I wanted you to know of that decision and I ask for your special prayers in my behalf.

This decision in no way implicates either Dr. Young or Bill Banowsky. I believe that both of these men are making a concerted effort to lead Pepperdine College in the most responsible way. I believe there is a way that I could work with them, provided I could make a firm decision. After indicating to Dr. Young that I would come and work with the Law School, I had serious misgivings that were constant and deep. I, therefore, after a lot of anguish, came to the conclusion that my call was still to the ministry of the word with this congregation.

I pray that your own situation will become clear to you. I deeply respect you and all that you have to offer. I pray that God will mightily use you wherever you go. I will treasure and watch for any opportunity to work with you in the days ahead.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk
